

Cheyenne County supports Fair Housing

Please contact Cheyenne County Attorney Paul Schaub for assistance in filing a housing discrimination complaint if you feel that you have been affected by the injustice of “housing discrimination”

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in housing on the basis of:

- Race of color
- National origin
- Religion
- Sex
- Familial status (families with children)
- Disability

Under the Fair Housing Act, the following activities are illegal:

- Refuse to rent or sell housing
- Refuse to negotiate for housing
- Make housing available
- Set different terms, conditions or privileges for sale or rental
- Provide different housing services or facilities
- Falsely deny that housing is available for inspection, sale or rental
- For profit, persuade owners to sell or rent (blockbusting)
- Deny any access to or membership in facility or service (such as multiple listing service) related to the sale of housing
- Refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules or services if necessary for a disabled person to use the housing
- Refuse to allow a disabled person to make reasonable accommodations to his/her dwelling
- Threaten or interfere with anyone making a fair housing complaint
- Refuse to provide municipal services, property insurance or hazard insurance for dwellings, or providing such services or insurance differently

What should you do if you believe discrimination has occurred?

(When reporting a complaint, be sure to include the following information):

- Your name and address
- The name and address of the person your complaint is against
- The address of the housing involved
- A short description of the event that caused you to believe your rights were violated
- The date(s) of the alleged violation
- To file a complaint:
